

A still life photograph of a dining table. In the foreground, a plate of green grapes is on the left. Next to it is a glass of red wine. In the background, there are more plates of food, including what looks like a strawberry and some bread. The lighting is warm and golden, suggesting an indoor setting with natural light. A dark brown rectangular box is overlaid in the center, containing the text 'FRESNO FOOD EXPO' in white. The word 'FOOD' is split into two lines, with a small green leaf icon above the 'O' in the second line. Below the box, the text 'SPONSORSHIP OPPORTUNITIES' is written in large, bold, green capital letters.
